

Job description

Lecturer – Interior Design

Reports to: Course Leader, Interior Design

Job purpose

- To provide teaching and learning using appropriate resources
 - To engage in research, knowledge exchange, and/or creative practice
 - To help deliver a contemporary, inclusive and innovative student experience which supports a diverse body of students in achieving excellence of practice and highly skilled employment and enterprise opportunities
 - To contribute to fulfilling the strategic vision of the university through delivery of the operational plan
-

Main responsibilities

Teaching, Learning and Assessment

- Assist in developing innovation, sustainability and inclusivity in learning, teaching and assessment
- Use a collaborative approach to teaching, assessment and preparation of course materials and resources
- Collaborate with industry, colleagues and students to develop a future-focused curriculum
- Act as a Year Leader and/or Unit Leader as appropriate
- Design, prepare and deliver relevant and engaging teaching sessions
- Assist the Course Leader in ensuring fair, accurate and timely internal and external assessment processes
- Provide effective and timely two-way communications and feedback with students

Research, Knowledge Exchange and Creative Practice

- Develop and implement a focused, ambitious and achievable personal development plan for research, knowledge exchange and/or creative practice
- Undertake research, knowledge exchange and creative practice that aligns to the strategic aims of the University and informs teaching
- Develop, create and publish recognised outputs
- Contribute to knowledge exchange and research opportunities and projects
- Support development of external networks with organisations, industry and other educational providers

Organisation and Management

- Supervise the day-to-day activities of staff working in teams you have oversight of
- Support the promotion of your course(s) to potential applicants nationally and internationally
- Contribute to the recruitment of students, working with the Course Leader to meet recruitment targets
- Work with the Course Leader to plan and deliver the course timetable according to given parameters and timelines
- Support quality enhancement processes including annual monitoring and periodic review
- Ensure appropriate resources are in place for the cohorts and groups you are responsible for
- Support effective budget management, ensuring value for money and a high-quality student experience

Additional Duties

- Maintain an active approach to continuing professional development and stay abreast of developments within your discipline(s)
- Participate in Committees, Boards and Working Groups as required
- Contribute to cross-university activities, particularly those that help facilitate delivery of the Strategic Plan
- Actively promote equality, diversity and inclusion
- Undertake any other appropriate duties as may be required by the Vice-Chancellor

Person Specification

Lecturer – Interior Design

Essential

- Demonstrable expertise in materials, spatial experimentation and creative practice together with innovative teaching strategies that support drawing, modelling, making and visualisation development
- Awareness of current industry developments in reuse, sustainability and together with proficiency in industry-relevant software
- Ability to design and deliver high quality teaching which encourages experimentation; reflects contemporary practices and methodologies; and shows a demonstrable commitment to responsible and inclusive practices
- An emerging profile as a practitioner, researcher and/or industry professional
- An awareness of the professional and industry requirements of future graduates and commitment to developing an industry network
- Strong team working, organisational and time-management skills
- Commitment to responsible and inclusive practices, and to equity, diversity and inclusion generally
- Educated to degree level in a relevant subject
- Commitment to gaining a teaching qualification or equivalent professional recognition

Desirable

- A postgraduate qualification in a relevant area and/or equivalent professional experience

Job description

Senior Lecturer – Interior Design

Reports to: Course Leader, Interior Design

Job purpose

- To support the management of designated courses in terms of teaching, learning and resources
 - To engage in research, knowledge exchange and creative practice
 - To help design and deliver a contemporary, inclusive and innovative student experience which supports a diverse body of students in achieving excellence of practice and highly skilled employment and enterprise opportunities
 - To contribute to fulfilling the strategic vision of the university through delivery of the operational plan
-

Main responsibilities

Teaching, Learning and Assessment

- Actively engage in developing innovation, sustainability and inclusivity in curriculum design, learning, teaching and assessment
- Collaborate with industry, colleagues and students to develop a future-focused curriculum
- Act as a Subject Leader, Year Leader and/or Unit Leader as appropriate
- Design, prepare and deliver relevant and engaging teaching sessions
- Work with the Course Leader to ensure fair, accurate and timely internal and external assessment processes
- Provide effective and timely two-way communications and feedback with students

Research, Knowledge Exchange and Creative Practice

- Develop and implement a focused, ambitious and achievable personal development plan for research, knowledge exchange and/or creative practice
- Undertake research, knowledge exchange and creative practice that aligns to the strategic aims of the University and informs teaching
- Develop, create and publish nationally and internationally recognised outputs
- Identify opportunities and funding, and contribute to, knowledge exchange and research opportunities and projects
- Build and maintain external networks with organisations, industry and other educational providers
- Provide Research and Knowledge Exchange mentorship

Organisation and Management

- Provide leadership and supervision for academic teams you are responsible for
- Engage in the promotion of your course(s) to potential applicants nationally and internationally
- Contribute to the recruitment of students, consciously working to meet recruitment targets
- Work with the Course Leader to plan, coordinate and deliver the course timetable according to given parameters and timelines

- Support quality enhancement processes including annual monitoring and periodic review
- Ensure appropriate resources are in place for the cohorts and groups you are responsible for
- Contribute to effective budget management, ensuring value for money and a high-quality student experience

Additional Duties

- Maintain an active approach to continuing professional development and stay abreast of developments within your discipline(s)
- Chair and/or participate in Committees, Boards and Working Groups as required
- Contribute to cross-university activities, particularly those that help facilitate delivery of the Strategic Plan
- Actively promote equality, diversity and inclusion
- Undertake any other appropriate duties as may be required by the Vice-Chancellor

Person Specification

Senior Lecturer – Interior Design

Essential

- Demonstrable expertise in materials, spatial experimentation and creative practice together with innovative teaching strategies that support drawing, modelling, making and visualisation development
 - Awareness of current industry developments in reuse, sustainability and together with proficiency in industry-relevant software
 - Proven ability to develop and deliver innovative learning and teaching strategies to promote an inclusive learning environment
 - A developing national and/or international profile as a practitioner, researcher and/or industry professional
 - An understanding of the professional and industry requirements of future graduates and a growing industry network
 - Excellent skills in organisation and management, with a collaborative and collegiate approach to teamworking
 - Commitment to responsible and inclusive practices, and to equity, diversity and inclusion generally
 - A postgraduate qualification in a relevant area and/or equivalent professional experience
 - Commitment to achieving a recognized teaching qualification / HEA Fellowship
-

Desirable

- Experience of leading year groups, units or modules at HE level
- Recognised teaching qualification/Advance HE Fellowship