

Person Specification

This form lists the essential and desirable requirements needed in order to do the job.

Applicants will be shortlisted solely on the extent to which they meet these requirements.

Job title: Research Fellow (Technology, Data and City Government Innovation research studio)

Department/Division: LSE Cities

Accountable to: Professor Alexander Evans

Competency	Criteria	E/D
Knowledge and experience	PhD awarded or submitted relating to technology, innovation or urban leadership, ideally with a policy focus.	D
	Evidence of advanced research skills, including on policy and academic projects	E
	Understanding of public sector leadership, administration, data, technology and policy delivery (which can be from practice)	E
	Background in public policy and smart cities	D
Communication	Excellent written and verbal communication skills, and ability to communicate research findings effectively	E
Teamwork and motivation	Ability to work with others at all levels of seniority	E
	Ability to build effective and productive working relations	E
	Ability to contribute to the effective operation of the Centre's research management and willingness to take on projects where support needs are identified	E
Planning & Organisation	Excellent organisational skills with the ability to streamline complex project components	E

	Ability to work in a team, to meet deadlines and to combine autonomy with respect for guidelines	E
	Ability to take responsibility for, and work independently on, specific project tasks	E
	Ability to prioritise workloads whilst maintaining high attention to detail and work standards	E

E – Essential: requirements without which the job could not be done.

D – Desirable: requirements that would enable the candidate to perform the job well.