This post will include course leadership and teaching on our Undergraduate and Postgraduate portfolio with a specific focus on the LLB portfolio. You will also be expected to contribute to the supervision of taught and research students, and to the ARU Research strategy.

What You'll Be Doing

Contribute to the research activities of the Faculty, including through the production of internationally recognised research / scholarly outputs.

Contribute to teaching and related activities across a range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses, drawing on own area(s) of expertise.

Design and develop teaching material across a range of modules and courses in the subject(s), where appropriate, at both undergraduate and postgraduate/professional levels.
Act as academic tutor, providing advice, guidance and support to students.
Act as a module leader for modules with several groups, leading the module team and co-ordinating activities, resources and assessment.

Contribute to planning and implementation of strategic areas such as student recruitment, marketing, quality assurance and student retention.

Work with colleagues to improve and enrich the experience of our students. Contribute to local plans in response to NSS outcomes.

Take a pro-active role in the recruitment and supervision of undergraduate and postgraduate students and undertake associated duties including preparation, marking and administration.

Contribute to curriculum development by identifying the need for review of current provision and designing and developing course proposals.

Work to achieve our vision and values in respect of widening participation, equality of opportunity, commitment to the health and safety of students and colleagues and the delivery of high-quality education provision.

Contribute to external income generation, including research, consultancy, and networking, and the identification and development of new market opportunities for the Department and the Faculty.

Comply with Data Protection Act 2018 and GDPR requirements in all working practices maintaining confidentiality, integrity, availability, accuracy, currency and security of information as appropriate. Take personal responsibility for all personal data within own working environment.

Comply with Equity Diversity and Inclusion, Safeguarding, Health & Safety and Sustainability responsibilities as detailed in our policies and procedures.

Such other duties temporarily or on a continuing basis, as may reasonably be required, commensurate with your grade.

This is a description of the job as it is presently constituted. It is normal practice to review periodically job descriptions to ensure that they are relevant to the job currently being performed, and to incorporate any changes which have occurred or are being proposed. The review process is carried out jointly by manager and employee and you are therefore expected to participate fully in such discussions. In all cases, it is our aim to reach agreement to reasonable changes, but where it is not possible to reach agreement, we reserve the right to make reasonable changes to your job description which are commensurate with your grade after consultation with you.
