Recruitment Process: Timeline

This timeline provides a clear overview of the expected timescales for each stage of the recruitment process & is designed to manage expectations for hiring managers, panel members, and candidates.

Approx total: 10 weeks

The above outlines each key stage, from the submission of a requisition up to final onboarding, to ensure everyone involved understands the time available to them for their involvement in each stage.

Awareness of this schedule, ensures a smooth, transparent, and efficient process that helps hiring managers make timely decisions, keeping panel members informed, and providing candidates with a positive and timely experience.

Please refer to the relevant Recruitment Module Guides in Moodle for further guidance and specific processes within each of the above stages.
