We provide a new regularity criterion of smooth solutions of the incompressible Navier-Stokes equations via the one component of the velocity field in various scaling invariant spaces with a natural growth condition of the $L^\infty$ norm near a possible blow-up time.

REFERENCES