By the way, if you are a student, then I recommend you check out a site that provides any kind of writing assistance and even can propose criminal justice topic for research paper.) I've been kind of through a lot this week this week has been really rough with like schoolwork organizations just everything trying to keep up with everything and then the YouTube business aspects of it like I just like dealing with like sponsorships and things like that for videos and it's kind of long on my plate right now and I'm also taking 17 hours for those of you who didn't know so my life is kind of a wreck right now and I'm working on my homework assignment I can show you guys if you guys want to see but basically I just have this case and I have to brief it and this is what it looks like quick brief overview this is the case then basically I just have to brief it and this is a what the brief looks like you just like answer answer those stuff so yeah that is what I'm doing this morning I also made myself a cup of coffee it's not very appealing right now I don't know I promise just stop drinking coffee in the morning because I never finished my cups of coffee you know I'm blurry there we go yeah so I look what is going on with me right now but your girl is not looking too hot and I'm stressing so I just you take a chill pill relax do my homework drink more coffee if I need to um and yeah that is what I'm doing this morning my next class doesn't start until 11:00 so I need to leave here by 10:30 which I just realized that is in 35 minutes so really need to finish this homework assignment also Bailey which is down there buy my shoes Bailey Bayley yeah still need to take her out to use the bathroom and feed her so yeah there's thigh and I just wanted to get ready for class don't know what I'm gonna do with this hair that honestly my hair looks it's not greasy but it doesn't you gonna do something with it Tuesdays and Thursdays or my busier days so I have class and then I have some re things to do and then I have powerlifting practice from 6 to 9 so that's gonna consume 3 hours of my day and yeah that is all that I have for you guys I will update you guys when I start doing stuff I just printed my case for the class on my little printer I honestly love this printer it's so awesome my dad got it for me like it's so cute ok but anyways yeah so I am honestly just gonna turn this off so I just got done praying it I'm gonna put it in my book bag now and then I'm going to take my planner out and I need to plan out my day just so I can stay on track with everything that's going on today and yeah so I'm going to go ahead and do this right now [Music] [Music] [Music] yeah [Music] [Music] okay hey guys so I'm gonna do a quick little outfit of the day for you guys before I head out so just have this a Patagonia shirt it's like a light purple one I got it from Libby she was gonna donate it and then I just took it from her and I kind of just like tucked it into my leggings I got these leggings at Marshall's their Adidas leggings and then I today I'm wearing my white converse normally wear my black ones but today I want to wear my white ones so this is today's outfit and then here's a Bailey having her breakfast she likes it yeah so I actually need a head out now because it is ten thirty eight in class starts at eleven so I'm just gonna grab my sunglasses I like to wear these which if you watched my what's in my backpack video you would know so I'm going to throw these on and then just head it right out the door I
