(Kantar, 2024–2025)

3 Unrivalled industry placements

As part of our Work-Integrated Learning model, all undergraduates complete 720 hours of paid industry placement, gaining real-world experience with leading hospitality organisations. Postgraduate students complete a 600 hours of relevant experience through our work placement program with one of our acclaimed industry partners. Placements can be undertaken anywhere in the world.

4 Decades of experience to get you job-ready

For more than three decades, BMIHMS has been educating future business and hospitality leaders. During that time, our passionate staff have continued to ensure that our degrees are industry-relevant, accumulating a wealth of knowledge and developing networks with industry leaders. Since opening in 1991, our sole priority has been to ensure students graduate job-ready.

5 Our three pillar approach to learning

Our unique approach to learning is based on Three Pillars: professional and personal growth, practical skills development and academic development. The Three Pillars ensure that you graduate well rounded, worldly, confident and prepared for a rewarding future and career.

"Combining my passion for people and travel is an amazing opportunity. I have always loved working with people, providing quality service and memorable experiences. A career in Hotel Management allows me to follow my passion while having endless opportunities to travel around the world, exploring everything it has to offer. Hospitality has the ability to transform you and how you see the world. I can't see myself working in any other industry."
