About us

Paul Lindsay, chatting with students.

History of St Giles

St Giles International was founded in 1955 by Paul Lindsay and his wife Diana. Paul trained to be a teacher and started his career teaching English and French to native English speakers at a north London polytechnic.

Wanting to earn some more money for his upcoming marriage, he took a summer job at an English language school on Oxford Street. The school was bursting at the seams with foreign students. He was excited by the demand for learning English. So he saved up £100 and rented a small room in a back street of Soho, London, and launched a school of English.

“We’re not just a business—St Giles is in our blood.” — Mark Lindsay, Chairman.

Paul Lindsay, the founder of St Giles, said “We were established a long time ago, but I am very pleased that all of the St Giles centres are today up-to-date and young in outlook, with vigorous, lively teachers and administrative staff.

We have every right to be proud of our high standards and our reputation. It is a great credit to Mark Lindsay and all our wonderful staff that St Giles celebrated its 70th anniversary in 2025. We look forward to celebrating many more anniversaries!”

Mark Lindsay, Chairman & Hannah Lindsay-Cornish, CEO at the 70th Anniversary.

Our Mission

Since 1955, St Giles has created a family of schools, fostering a community made up of long-term international relationships. We have built on our experience and committed ourselves to constant improvement and high quality.

We aspire to treat students as individuals and to empower them to find their voice and to create the conditions for an immersive English language learning journey both inside and outside our classrooms.

More Than Language Learning

Safeguarding and child protection

We take safeguarding very seriously at our centres and we have Safeguarding Officers at every school. They provide support for students under the age of 18 to help ensure wellbeing throughout their stay. We also run background and police checks on all our staff.

Support and welfare

We want to make sure our students are safe and happy during their time with us, so we provide:

- An emergency 24-hour phone number
- Dedicated staff to help with any accommodation, learning or welfare issues
- A welcome session on arrival so our students can meet the team and their peers

Social programme

Meet new friends during our social programme where you'll enjoy activities like trips, parties, meals out and much more! Organised by our Social Programme Team, our social calendar includes afternoon, evening and weekend activities designed for all ages and interests. Some activities are free whilst others may have an additional cost.

8 reasons to choose St Giles

Established in 1955

Founded in Soho, St Giles has been family-owned and has welcomed students for over 70 years. We put student happiness and success at the heart of everything we do, creating a warm, supportive environment where everyone feels they belong.

Small class sizes and high-quality teaching

We keep classes small—normally up to 12 students (or 5 on Platinum courses), although St Giles reserves the right to accommodate up to 13 students per class when necessary. With a learner-centred approach, regular one-to-one feedback and continuous teacher development, we ensure real progress.

On-site residence in Central London

Our London Central school sits in the heart of the city, just minutes from Covent Garden, the West End, and the British Museum. We're also the only central London language school with an on-site Zone 1 residence, offering a unique all-in-one study and living experience.

Courses, locations & a fantastic social programme for every student

With centres across the UK, we offer courses for adults, juniors, families and Platinum students, with flexible accommodation and exciting social programmes to help students learn, explore and connect.

Global Community and Flexible Accommodation Options

Join a friendly international community of students from around the world. Choose from homestays, residences, hotels, or apartments.

George Street Residence – in the heart of Brighton

In Brighton, our George Street Residence is just 4 minutes from the school, offering exclusive St Giles student accommodation for a safe, social experience.

Experienced staff with long-standing expertise

Our dedicated team includes many long-standing staff, creating continuity and care throughout every student journey. With decades of combined experience in English language teaching and student support, we combine expertise with a warm, welcoming approach.

Honoured by the Queen in 2015

We were honoured with the Queen's Award for Enterprise in 2015, recognising outstanding achievement in international trade and education. As part of this achievement, CEO Mark Lindsay visited Buckingham Palace to receive the award from Queen Elizabeth II on behalf of St Giles.

Your learning

Josh Round
Group Academic Director

Our approach to teaching is focused on helping you achieve your personal goals, which we do through:

- Learner-centred teaching - we focus on the needs and interests of our students.
- Flexible teaching plans - the contents of our courses are tailored to our students' needs.
- Active learning in our classes through participation in activities and discussions.

Your class

Before you start your course at St Giles, you will take an online placement test so we can make sure you are placed in the right class. You will then be put in a class with students who have a similar level of English and, where possible, are from a variety of countries.

At St Giles, we have a maximum class size of 12 at our year-round centres and 15 at our Junior centres. For even smaller class sizes, students can opt for our Platinum classes (available at selected locations). For Platinum classes, the minimum age is 21 and the maximum class size is 5. This means that you will enjoy personal attention from your teachers, which will help you make faster progress.

Meeting your teachers

Vicky Harris
Assistant Director of Studies

To help you make the best progress, our teachers are all:

- Qualified, native-level English speakers, often with many years of experience.
- Regularly observed and appraised, with detailed feedback to continue to improve their teaching.
- Encouraged to take further qualifications.

The Cambridge CELTA is awarded to candidates who meet the course requirements and whose performance meets or exceeds the criteria for both components of assessment. Your progress will be monitored by your tutors throughout the course.
